OSH ALERT 2019-11 [02 August 2019]

U.S. Coast Guard Revises Marine Casualty Forms

The United States Coast Guard (USCG) has recently revised the five (5) forms utilized in the reporting of qualifying marine casualties. A link to each of the revised forms is provided below:

CG-2692 \(Report of Marine Accident, Injury, or Death\)

CG-2692A \(Barge Addendum\)

CG-2692B \(Report Of Chemical Drug and Alcohol Testing\)

CG-2692C \(Personnel Casualty Addendum\)

CG-2692D \(Witness Addendum\)

Marine Terminal/Stevedoring employers are, in a general sense, obliged to report serious/fatal injuries exclusively to the Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA); not USCG.

In certain, discrete, shipboard accidents, however, relevant provisions within the Code of Federal Regulations require the execution and transmittal of the foregoing USCG forms.

Guidance relative as to when the execution and transmittal is mandatory, and how to execute the forms, may be accessed via this link:
